EXTRACTS, tranſlated from a French Pamphlet, lately publiſhed at PARIS, entituled, Motives for Peace with England, addreſſed to the French Miniſtry, by an old SEA-OFFICER.

AMONG other Things, this ſenſible Author writes thus: The World have been accuſtomed to ſpeak of us (the French) as a politic People, therefore we believe we are ſo. But was it prudent to riſk our Home Trade, and ſtop the Progreſs of our Marine, in order to recover trivial Rights, and to make wretched Conqueſts in America? Ought we not to have waited, at leaſt Ten Years, 'til we were in a Condition effectually to ſupport our Claims. Our lively Genius cannot bear delay. The Engliſh would have done our Buſineſs, had we permitted them. Their Religion was Pleaſure and their Pleaſure was in Debauchery. They had plunged themſelves into an Exceſs of Luxury and Intemperance. They had neglected their Navy, and diſbanded their Artificers, who flew to France and Spain for Maintenance. Whilſt their Individuals ſquandered their Riches, the State grew parſimonious, and began to ſave in thoſe Articles on which they cannot be too profuſe. They were even very near reducing their trivial Army, and loudly ſpoke of intruſting, what they call their Liberty and Property, to the Valour of a raw Militia. What a Field was this for our Policy! Was it our Buſineſs to awake or arouſe them from their Lethargy? Yet we did it, and the Conſequence is obvious. We have taught them to believe a real Truth, That they cannot ſtrengthen themſelves too much by Sea or Land. Now an Army ceaſes to be the Object of public Diſlike, and the People begin to think, that as they muſt have one, it is better to have an Army of Engliſh than of Frenchmen. Now their young Nobility apply themſelves to the Military, and think themſelves honoured by that Profeſſion, in which alone conſiſts the Defence and Security of their Country. This is a Revolution we never thought of. This may be fatal to us; for the longer we continue the War, the more their Effeminacy will wear off, and their ancient Spirit and Courage revive. They will not, for the preſent, become more wealthy, but they will get more Wiſdom, which is better. The military Virtues, and the manly Exerciſes, may become faſhionable, and the Nation, which now ſeems immerſed in Debauchery and Corruption, may think ſeriouſly, and be once more, what it has often been, the Terror of Europe. This is not an unnatural Suppoſition. They eaſily glide from one Extreme to another. It is their natural Temper, and their whole Hiſtory is one continual Proof of it.

Again he ſays: Our paſt Conduct has, to all Intents and Purpoſes, really united Scotland to England. They now ſupply them abundantly, with good Officers, and hard Soldiers. They furniſh Numbers for the Sea; for their Mariners increaſe, by the vaſt increaſe of the Trade. Their Commerce is an additional Strength to England, as more Channels are opened for the Entrance of Wealth, which inſenſibly finds its Way to the Heart of the Kingdom, and from thence diffuſes itſelf into every Part.

The Blow to the Intereſt of France is ſtruck, and is now unavoidable; but even this is trivial, to what we ſhould ſuffer if the Engliſh extended the ſame Conduct, to the large and fertile Kingdom of Ireland. What ſhould we ſay, if Partiality and Prejudice ſubſided, and that, That Kingdom, was viewed in a juſt Light, and made the proper and natural Uſe of? A Continuance of the War, will drive England into that Expedient. She would then grant them a free Commerce, which would infinitely increaſe her own Revenues. She would then have well furniſhed Docks in the Weſt of that Iſland, and Fleets there ready in a Moment, for all Expeditions. She would then ruin our Woollen Manufactures, (which now ruin her) as it would then be impoſſible for us to obtain Materials. She would then treble the Number of her Subjects there, and would diſcover, that the more ſhe confines the Trade of Ireland, the more ſhe enlarges ours, and ruins her own. She would then furniſh the Iriſh, with the Means of aſſiſting and relieving her Wants, and ſhe would then do all this, and infinitely more, chiefly at the Expence of France.

The general Weakneſs, and Supineneſs, that forever attends immoderate Wealth and Luxury, hides from the Engliſh, the Knowledge of their own Strength, real Power, and true Intereſt. Suffer them not to Relapſe into Virtue and Underſtanding. Plunge them not too deep into Difficulties, and they will never emerge from Folly into real Wiſdom.

And he concludes, thus: Give them Peace, and they will ſoon return, to their Amuſements of Elections, Party, and Faction.

Give them Peace; and their Miniſters, muſt be directed by popular Clamour, which we can always excite, and encourage.

Give them Peace; and their Navy will once more be laid up to rot, and their Seamen and Artificers, once more be turned over to us.

Give them Peace; and the greateſt Part of their Army will ſoon be reduced, and the ſmall Remains, under the Conduct of a leſs noble General than the preſent, will become a meer Militia in Pay.

Give them Peace; and we ſhall not fear the Defection of One, or Two of our preſent Allies, which would ruin our preſent Syſtem.

Give them Peace; and they will never think of Schemes for increaſing their People, or for making every Part of their Dominions of real Uſe to every other.

Purſue ſteadily this Plan for Fifteen or Twenty Years, conſtantly directing the Riches of the Kingdom, to the raiſing a Navy, equal or ſuperior to England, and then, and not till then, ſhall we be able to ſtrike the Blow, we have, for above a Century, been meditating.

Gentlemen, be not offended. I think as I ſpeak, and I write what I think. My Stile may be odd, but my Matter is true. Deſpiſe not good Advice, tho' given by an Old Seamen.

Such Drains as theſe, if they ſhould be opened every Ten Years, would help greatly to prevent the Acquiſition of exorbitant Wealth; and conſequently all the Avarice, Luxury, and Effeminacy, which are the Effects of it.

Oxford, April 22. On Thurſday laſt, about 3 o'Clock in the Afternoon, arrived at the Angel Inn in this City, from Southampton, Monſ. Du Queſne, Chef d'Eſcadre, Commander of the Foudroyant, taken by Admiral Oſborne off Carthagena, with four other French Officers, taken at the ſame Time. During their ſhort Stay they employed themſelves in viſiting the ſeveral Colleges and Public Buildings of this Univerſity, of which they expreſſed their Admiration, as well as their Acknowledgments of the polite Reception which they every where met with.

Yeſterday Morning, about 11 o'Clock, they ſet out for Northampton, where they are to remain Priſoners on their Parole. Their Coach and Six was overturned in their Way hither, but none of them received any Hurt.

HALIFAX, May 6.

Monday laſt arrived here a Prize Ship taken by Admiral Hardy off Louiſburg; ſhe is about 6 or 700 Tons burthen, mounts 20 Carriage Guns, and had on board 100 private Soldiers and three Officers; her Cargo conſiſts of Proviſions and Warlike Stores.

May 20. Sunday laſt the Schooner Monckton, in the Service of this Government, arrived here: She had been in Search of ſome Men who had ſtole a Boat, and deſerted from one of his Majeſty's Ships in this Harbour; by the People of whom we are informed, That the Friday before they went on Shore at a ſmall Iſland call'd Proſpect, a little to the Weſtward of this Harbour, where they found four Men and one Woman kill'd and ſcalp'd, whom they buried before they left the Iſland.

June 3. Laſt Friday Night arrived here the Prize Schooner——taken by one of his Majeſty's Ships now cruizing off Louiſburg, under the Command of Rear Admiral Hardy: She had a Letter of Marque, was fitted out in a Warlike Manner, and was from Bourdeaux, bound for Louiſburg; her Cargo conſiſting of Brandy, Wine, &c. On her Paſſage ſhe had taken two Engliſh Veſſels, both of which ſhe ranſom'd, and the Ranſomers arrived here with her.

The Officer who brought in the above Prize informs, that his Majeſty's Ship Boreas, Captain Boyle, had taken a large French Store-ſhip of about 400 Tons, bound to Louiſburg, valued at about 60,000 l. which left the Fleet 10 Days before the Schooner bound in hither.

We alſo hear that the Boreas has taken a French Frigate of 36 Guns (which is 8 more than ſhe carries herſelf) and that ſhe is now with the Fleet.

We hear the Dublin, on her Paſſage, has taken a French Eaſt-Indiaman, valued at 80,000 l. and ſent her into Port: She has alſo retaken an Engliſh Snow.

Wedneſday arrived here a French Prize Schooner, taken by the Boreas.

BOSTON, June 19.

Extract of a Letter from a Gentleman at Liſbon, dated April 15, 1758.

" Capt. Rodney, in the Dublin Man of War, who is going to join Admiral Boſcawen in your Part of the World, took in his Way, and ſent into Vigo, a French Eaſt-Indiaman, from the Iſles of Bourbon, laden with Coffee, &c. computed to be worth 50,000 l.——The Hanoverians have continued to harraſs the French in their Retreat, and by Advices this Poſt, they had killed and taken ſeveral Thouſands more; ſo that the Army of the Grand Monarch will be hardly able to ſhew their Faces again.——Many late Inſinuations have alarmed us with Fears that the Spaniards were about to take Part in the War againſt us; but hope all theſe Apprehenſions will vaniſh into Smoke.—We have alſo Advice, that his Majeſty's Ship Prince-George, of 90 Guns, was burnt at Sea by ſome Accident, in Lat. 48: 12 N. and Long. 4: 20 W. from the Lizard, on board of which was Admiral Broderick, who, with the Captain and about 30 Men, got into the Boat, but ſhe overſetting, the Admiral and Captain ſaved themſelves on two Oars, but the reſt of the People which were in the Boat were drowned: About 300 Men were ſaved by Boats, and 400 periſhed.——The Admiral went on board a 20 Gun Ship; which, with a Sloop, took Care of the Convoy, which was bound to Gibraltar, under the Prince George, and to join Admiral Osborne.——This sad Accident happened the 10th of April, at which Time the Wind blew very fresh, and the Sea boisterous.——The French Ship Foudroyant, taken in the Streights, with 84 Brass Cannon (as heretofore inserted) was the Ship Monsr. Galissoniere commanded at Mahon: She had got nigh the Shore, when Capt. Gardner, in a 60 Gun Ship, boarded her, and carried her, with the Loss of himself and 30 Men: And 'tis assured that the French Military Chest going to Canada was on board when taken."—

on

We have Advice, that Capt. Sample, in the Privateer Ship Pownall, of this Port, has taken a French Brig, a Letter of Marque, bound from Bourdeaux to the West-Indies, laden with Stores, Bale Goods, &c. said to be very valuable, and sent her to St. Thomas's; and that he intended, after another short Cruize to proceed with her to this Place.

We hear that a few Days ago, some of our Soldiers, in their Way to Albany, being encamp'd above Northampton, a Number, for Diversion, cut round the Bottom of a large Tree with their Hatchets; which happened to fall upon a Tent, in which were four or five People, one of which was killed out-right; and another had an Arm and both Legs broke; the other much bruised.

We hear from Arrowsick, that last Thursday Se'nnight a Man was killed there by the Indians as he was tilting up a Cart of Dung, after which the Indians went to his House and kill'd and scalp'd his Wife, and carried off his six Children and two Servants Captives.

Yesterday a Vessel arrived here in 13 Days from Halifax, but brings no Account of the Fleet under Admiral Boscawen, only that they were seen the second Day after they sailed from thence a few Leagues to the Eastward of Canso.

Extract of a Letter from Halifax, dated June 6.

"We hear by a Prize that came in three Days ago, there were eight French Men of War got into Louisburg, viz. two of 74 Guns, three of 60, and three Frigates: One of the Prizes came in here, cost 60,000*l.* Sterling."

Extract of another Letter from Halifax, dated June 7.

"The Number of Land Forces, including Officers, and about 1800 Marines, amount to no less than 14,900 effective Men; and there are Nineteen glorious Ships of the Line of Battle, besides Nine Frigates, Two Fireships, and a Number of Sloops on the Spot to assist. The Dublin, of 74 Guns, the Devonshire of 66, and the Pembroke of 60, are in this Harbour, and will join the Admiral as soon as their Men recover.

Copy of the Orders given by the Admiral, on board the Namure, Halifax Harbour, May 21, 1758.

PAROLE BOSCAWEN.

ALL Arrears, and Sea Pay of all the Corps to be paid forthwith, as far as there is Money to do it.

The Grenadiers of the Army, and two or three of the oldest Regiments, will probably be the first to land, unless the Admiral thinks it necessary, from the Situation of the Transports or other Circumstances to order it otherwise.—The Boats of the Ordnance Ships, as well as the rest will be employed in landing the first Body of Men, except such as are requisite to carry on Shore the light Six-pounders.

The Boats of the Hospital Ships are solely to be employed for the Use and Assistance of any who may be wounded. And a Place of Rendezvous will be appointed for the Boats when the Landing is fix'd upon.

The Seamen who row the Transports Boats, are not to have Fire-Arms, when the Troops are ordered to land.

Officers are to go into the Boats in Proportion to the Number of Men without crouding, and particularly, if there be any Swell or Surff.—The Admiral will order some light Boats to save any Men who may fall into the Sea by any Accident.

The first Body in Caparouge-Bay must carry nothing in the Boats but their Arms and Ammunition, with Bread and Cheese in their Pockets for two Days; all the Tents and Blankets of the Troops that land first are to be carefully bundled up, ready to be carried on Shore, after they have got Footing, and have beat off the Enemy.

Six Days Provisions to be prepared at a proper Time, in Readiness to be sent on Shore after the Men.

Trusty Persons to be left in every Ship to superintend and take Care of the Baggage and Provisions.

No Woman to be permitted to land, until the Army are all on Shore, and until their Tents, Blankets, Provisions and Necessaries are likewise landed.

The Officers commanding a Boat shall be answerable that no Man fire his Piece from out of the Boat.

There have been Examples of Men fixing their Bayonets in Boats, but the Practice is so absurd that it seems hardly necessary to forbid it.——Bayonets are fixed in a Moment after the Men are landed.

As fast as the Men get out of the Boats, they must form and march directly forward to clear the Beach, and charge whatever is before them. They are not to pursue, but will be ordered to take Post, so as effectually to secure the Rest of the Army.

The Commander of the Grenadiers, and all the Field Officers employed in the first Landing, are to embark in light rowing Boats, that they may lead their respective Corps, and give their Orders readily.

The Transports which have on board the Regiment of the Train of Artillery, and of the Corps of Rangers, must keep as much together as possible, that when the Signal is made for any particular Corps, it may be in Readiness to act. As this depends in a great Measure, upon the Masters of Transports, they are to endeavour to effect it. But if the Admiral should think proper to order that the Boats of every Transport, without Regard to the Corps, should bring away as many Men, as they can safely contain, to any particular Place of Rendezvous, then the Commanding Officer of every Ship is to make Choice of good Men, and under proper Officers, and Non-commission Officers, that the first Attack may be carried on with Vigour.

Colonels and Field Officers will be named to command; and every Regiment, as they know the Number of Men their Boats can hold, will send Captains in Proportion, and give them Directions to be ready before they leave this Harbour.

As there may be Reason to detach the Sloops and Schooners of the Fleet, a Signal will be appointed for them.

From the NEWPORT MERCURY, or WEEKLY ADVERTISER, Number I.

NEW-PORT, Rhode-Island, June 19.

On Wednesday last was brought in here a French Prize Brigantine, called Le Semidore. She was taken the 19th of May, off Cape-François, by Capt. Chaloner, in the Brig Defiance, of this Port, and the Privateer Sloop Harlequin, of New-York. She sailed from Bourdeaux the Beginning of April, and came out with 15 Sail of Ships bound to Canada, under Convoy of two Frigates. When taken she mounted two Carriage Guns, and six Swivels, and had 20 Men. Her Cargo consists of Flour, Wine, Brandy, Pork, Candles, Soap, Oil, Bale Goods, &c. She formerly belonged to this Port, and was taken on her Voyage to Jamaica by the French, at the Commencement of the War.

Extract of a Letter from Capt. Walter Chaloner of the Brig Defiance, to his Owners in this Place.

"On the 10th of May I fell in with a Fleet of French Merchantmen, under Convoy of a 74 Gun Ship, and two Frigates, one of 36, and the other of 22 Guns. At the same Time his Majesty's Ships the Edinburgh of 64 Guns, and Assistance, of 50, were in Sight, whom I expected would attack the French Men of War; but, to my great Surprize, they did not come within Gunshot all Day. At Night I sent my Barge into Monto Christo, to acquaint the Privateers who were lying at that Place therewith, when I was joined by Capt. Troup, of New-York, and Capt. Potter, of Newport, the only Privateers then there, and continued in Sight of the Fleet, in Expectation of his Majesty's Ships attacking the Men of War; but the Edinburgh kept a-stern, and would not come up. Upon which Captain Troup haled the Assistance, and told the Captain, if he would engage the 74 Gun Ship, he would lie along Side one of the Frigates, and nail his Colours to the Mast, determining either to take her, or perish in the Attempt; but the Captain of the Assistance told him to stand on with the other Privateers, and keep in Sight of the Fleet, and he would bear down to the Edinburgh, and with her attack the Man of War: But, to our great Mortification, after he had spoke with the Edinburgh, they bore away for Jamaica, and permitted the Man of War, and two Frigates, with nine Sail of Merchantmen, to go unmolested into the Cape."

NEW-YORK, June 26.

Tuesday last a large French Ship from Bayonne, bound for Cape-François, was sent in here by the Privateers Colonel Prevost, General Johnson, and Earl of Loudoun, all of this Port: She is loaded with Provisions and Dry Goods.

Thursday a Snow with Highlanders, came in from St. Kitts, being Part of Colonel Fraser's Battalion, who were obliged to proceed for the West-Indies, having a leaky Vessel, not being able to reach this Port.

We hear from Albany, that Lord Howe marched Yesterday Week from Fort-Edward, and the next Day more Troops marched.

PHILADELPHIA, June 29.

Extract of a Letter from Antigua, June 1, 1758.

"Nothing very material has happened here lately, unless the Insolence of the Dutch at St. Eustatius may be thought to be so. They have seized one of our Privateers, and take both the Persons and Effects of all they can lay hold of that have been Owners of private Ships of War. The Diligence of our Men of War has indeed cleared our Shores of French Privateers; but they still cruize in great Numbers 20 or 30 Leagues to Windward, and make too many Prises."

In a Letter from Barbados, dated the 28th ult. it is said, that the French had taken about Thirty of our Vessels in a Month's Time before that Date.

From Albany we are informed, that Major Rogers returned the 18th from a Scout, in which he had been unsuccessful: That his Party consisted of about 68 Men, set out from Fort Edward on the 13th, and on the 16th, near the French End of the Lake, he landed 28 of his Men, leaving the rest to take Care of the Boats, and marched them by Land, to make some Discovery of the Enemy; but fearing so many Men might be seen by the French if he carried them so near the Fort as he could wish, in order to make the proper Observations, he made them halt, and himself, with two Men only, advanced in Sight of the Fort and French Encampment, when he observed a great Bustle in the Camp, and saw some of the Men making up their Packs: That upon this he imagined his Men were discovered, and immediately sent one of the two that were with him to those he had left; but the Enemy had surrounded his Men, without his perceiving it, by which it was impossible for him to join them: And that Rogers himself, with much Difficulty, escaped, five of those surrounded were killed, and Ensign Downing, of the 55th Regiment, and two others, made Prisoners; but all the rest except four, who are missing, joined him soon after he got back to the Boats.—It is said that Rogers's Party killed the Chief Sachem of the French Indians.

A Letter from Albany, dated the 17th Instant says, "Sir "William Johnson has Orders to take the Field immediate- "ly with all the Indians he can muster, which will be be- "tween five and six Hundred. Notwithstanding the various "Reports you have of our Indian Affairs, I can safely say, "we never had a better Prospect of them."

On Friday last came up here two French Dutch Prizes, a Sloop and Schooner, taken by Capt. Turner, in the Privateer Knowles of this Place, and Capt. Hopkins, in a Privateer of Rhode-Island; the Sloop from St. Eustatius for Hispaniola, laden with Provisions and Bale Goods; the Schooner for Corocoa from Port Dauphin, in Hispaniola, with Indico, Sugar and Coffee.

And Capt. Turner, Capt. Lush, of New-York, and the Captains Hopkins and Potter, of Rhode-Island, have taken and sent to New-York, a large Ship, of 400 Tons, bound to Cape-François, from Amsterdam; her Cargo Powder, Provisions, and Dry Goods. This Ship is arrived at New-York.
